April 2011

Dear Friends,

Just a few days before Christmas at St. Anne's Shrine, we discovered that two of our beautiful and well grown blue spruce trees were stolen from the area alongside the Way of the Cross. These trees added to the beauty of the grounds as pilgrims prayed the Stations of the Cross near the shore of Lake Champlain. The trees were actually donated by an out-of- State man in memory of his deceased wife. The two of them would often visit the Shrine, pray and make their petitions known to Good St. Anne. The Shrine was special to both of them as it is for many others seeking spiritual nourishment.

It saddens us that someone would take property commemorating the death of Jesus in the Way of the Cross, in order to celebrate the birth of Jesus at Christmas. We were disappointed that someone would take trees from a religious site such as St. Anne's Shrine that brings so much joy, beauty and peace to so many. It was disheartening for us to be the victims of such an act.

As we move towards spring, despite threats of snow, we begin to make necessary preparations for our opening during Memorial Day weekend. Thanks to the generosity of friends of the Shrine, the trees that were taken will be replaced. However, there are many other trees damaged by winter from heavy snow and ice that will need to be cared for or replaced. The beach needs to be cleaned, docks put in, statues of various saints cleaned and chapel pews painted. The road leading up to the cafeteria has been split in two as a result of rapidly melting snow causing a river of water to flood the edge of the road. The gutters of the chapel pavilion need replacement from too much ice, along with routine maintenance of all buildings to check for unforeseen damage.

We certainly cannot perform these and many other tasks to prepare the Shrine for the 2011 Pilgrimage Season without financial assistance. Please consider making a donation to St. Anne's Shrine during this time of Lent as we prepare for the glorious feast of Easter, knowing that your support of the Shrine is very much needed and appreciated. Contributions may be sent to St. Anne's Shrine, P.O. Box 280, Isle LaMotte, VT 05463. May God bless you in your generosity.

Sincerely,

Rev. Brian J. Cummings, S.S.E.
Spiritual Director
