

St. Michael's College

Student Conference on Language Teaching

Proposals Due: February 10th, 2020

Conference Date: Saturday, April 18th, 2020

CONFERENCE DESCRIPTION

The goal of this conference is to bring together language educators, researchers, and policy makers in order to share innovations in the field of second language teaching and learning. We hope to expand and develop participants' understanding of second language acquisition, while also enriching our efficacy in teaching.

CALL FOR PAPERS

The graduate students of St. Michael's TESOL program, in partnership with Northern New England TESOL (NNETESOL), invite proposal submissions that explore a range of topics related to second language teaching and learning, including, but not limited to, the following:

- ❖ Approaches to Assessment
- ❖ Motivational Strategies
- ❖ Teaching SIFE
- ❖ L2 Teacher & Learner Identity
- ❖ Asset-Based Instruction
- ❖ Metacognitive strategies
- ❖ Trauma Informed Pedagogy
- ❖ Refugee Concerns
- ❖ Computer Assisted Language Learning

FORMAT & EQUIPMENT

Presentations will be held in St. Edmund's Hall classrooms. Sessions last 45 minutes: 30 minutes for presentations and 15 minutes for discussion. We encourage audience participation. Rooms are equipped with computers, sound, internet, and projectors.

For more information please email: smctesolconference@gmail.com