

Prof. Gulnora Nasirova joined Saint Michael's as a Faculty Enrichment Program (FEP) Fellow in January.

Prof. Christina Bauer-Ramazani, Director of English Language Programs will mentor Prof. Nasirova during her further exploration of the connection between Elementary Education and English Language Learning. Prof. Nasirova has a Master of Arts in TESOL from Webster University, Tashkent, and is a senior teacher at Uzbekistan State World Language University in Tashkent. According to a news release, "Her fellowship project focuses on language teaching and learning and she hopes to find ways for the university to establish new ways of teaching languages to young learners (TLYL) in order to better prepare future teachers of young learners in the Republic of Uzbekistan."

Several international undergraduate students were among the 34 winter graduates who were lauded during a brief ceremony on December 8 in the Dion Family Student Center Roy Room. December graduates included Nicholas Hermary (Canada), Tao Lin (China), and Xingyu Liu (China). Details about the celebration are available here.

Students in the Intensive English Program, as well as those students finishing their Academic English Program this fall, were recognized at a closing ceremony on December 13 in the Farrell Room in Saint Edmund's Hall. The ceremony included student and faculty speakers, dances performed by students from Tamagawa University, the awarding of certificates, and a special visit from Santa Claus.
