

A bi-monthly newsletter brought to you by the Office for International Students and Scholars

VOL. 2, ISSUE 6

NOVEMBER/DECEMBER 2018

Professor Lorrie Smith, faculty member of the English department, was named Acting Dean for the College. Smith will be closely involved in spring tenure and promotion cases, as well as helping faculty prepare for upcoming reviews. Complete coverage available here.

The College's Board of Trustees approved two new majors in October: Health Science and Public Health, as well as a minor in Health Care Administration. The programs will launch in the fall 2019 semester. Click here for more details.

Saint Michael's College is one of 57 institutions to grant the #YouAreWelcomeHere scholarship to first-year international applicants pursuing undergraduate degrees. The College will award between two and five renewable scholarships with values up to 52% of tuition.

Photo credit: Elizabeth Stapleton '19

The annual International Festival, was held on November 3 in the Tarrant Recreation Center. Attendees enjoyed entertainment and food from around the world. Full coverage and images are available from The Defender.

Saint Michael's celebrated its first ever day of giving on November 13. During this 24-hour fundraiser, 754 donors contributed $176,500 in honor of, or in memory of, someone at the College who impacted their time here. View President Sterritt's thank you message here.

The Department of Athletics partnered with the Department of Institutional Advancement for the Purple Knight Challenge. During the second-annual event, 21 varsity teams raised nearly $74,000 for use toward recruitment, travel, uniforms, and equipment.

Contact Us

Saint Michael's College, Office for International Students and Scholars
Saint Edmund's Hall 222A, Box 185
Colchester, VT, USA
+1.802.654.2391

International Admission
Travel Schedule

Facebook@SMCVTUSA

WeChat@SaintMichaels

Click to unsubscribe

Next edition: January/February 2019