

CASHMAN HALL FIRST FLOOR

Please Note: The gender and program assignment of Cashman suites changes from year to year based on numbers, class gender breakdowns, numbers in room selection processes, etc. For example, though women live in a particular suite one year, men may live in the same suite the following year; though a suite may be selected during the Honors Housing process one year, it may be used for the Singles process the following year.

Please Note: Certain rooms on campus are designated as ADA compatible spaces. Although not listed here, the Student Life Office, Facilities, and Accessibility Services maintain a list of

100, 200 & 400 TOWNHOUSE SIDE

CASHMAN HALL
SECOND FLOOR

ROUTE 15 SIDE

Please Note: The gender and program assignment of Canterbury suites changes from year to year based on numbers, class gender breakdowns, numbers in room selection processes, etc. For example, though women live in a particular suite one year, men may live in the same suite the following year; though a suite may be selected during the Honors Housing process one year, it may be used for the Singles process the following year.

Please Note: Certain rooms on campus are designated as ADA compatible spaces. Although not listed here, the Student Life Office, Facilities, and Accessibility Services maintain a list of these rooms and they will be assigned to students as needed through the Housing Accommodation Process.

100, 200 & 400 TOWNHOUSE SIDE

CASHMAN HALL
THIRD FLOOR

ROUTE 15 SIDE

Please Note: The gender and program assignment of Canterbury suites changes from year to year based on numbers, class gender breakdowns, numbers in room selection processes, etc. For example, though women live in a particular suite one year, men may live in the same suite the following year; though a suite may be selected during the Honors Housing process one year, it may be used for the Singles process the following year.

Please Note: Certain rooms on campus are designated as ADA compatible spaces. Although not listed here, the Student Life Office, Facilities, and Accessibility Services maintain a list of these rooms and they will be assigned to students as needed through the Housing Accommodation Process.